

Saturday 15 June at 7 pm
in Tavistock United Reformed Church

NINE PARTS A QUAKER – UNFINISHED BUSINESS?

The story of Thomas Clarkson and the abolition of the slave trade

A play written and presented by Plain Quakers

The play tells the story of Thomas Clarkson's work with William Wilberforce and Quaker activists in the 1800s to end the slave trade.

But if slavery was abolished 200 years ago, why are more than 20 million people enslaved today? Alongside this story we highlight instances of modern slavery, and ask some serious questions about what we are doing about it. Is there anything we can do to break the chains?

Tavistock Quaker Meeting invites you to come to see Nine Parts a Quaker – Unfinished Business starting at 7 pm in the URC on SATURDAY 15 JUNE

We hope to cover the cost by inviting members of the audience to make a suggested donation of £5.
