

Living Witness Workshop

Spread Out and Sustainable

Being a low carbon sustainable dispersed community.

To be held at Truro Meeting House, Saturday 31st May 2014.

10.00 Arrivals & refreshments

10.30 Opening worship

10.45 Welcome, introductions

In pairs: Why are we here? What issues, questions, needs & hopes have we come with?

LM short talk: What it might mean to be a low carbon sustainable Quaker community

Discussion: What are the particular opportunities and challenges in Cornwall?

11.45 break

12.15 Vision for being low carbon and sustainable in our communities

Visualisation followed by small group work

13.00 lunch (please bring vegetarian lunch to share).

14.00 Vision as ministry: telling the story of our visions

Small groups and plenary

15.00 Ideas for action and next steps

LM intro: some information on what Quakers are doing elsewhere

Small group work followed by plenary

16.00 Outcomes and Actions

16.30 tea & departures

Address of TMH is: Friends' Way, Pauls Terrace, Truro Vean, Truro, Cornwall TR1 1HD

Nearest station to TMH is Truro, for details on parking at TMH see <http://swquakers.org.uk/meetings/cornwall/truro-quakers>