

Saturday 13 October
At Exeter Quaker Meeting House,

Wynards Lane (Off Magdalen Street) Exeter EX2 4HU
Grid reference: SX924923

Note: the morning is an open meeting to which members of local concerned groups have been invited. The afternoon is focussed on a Quaker approach. Our visitors are welcome to stay all day.

PROGRAMME

10:00 Arrivals, registration, refreshments

10:30 Welcome

10:45 Speakers: Stewart Wallis, O.B.E., of the New Economics Foundation
Symon Hill, Associate Director, Ekklesia

11:35 Shuffle break: submission of written questions for speakers

11:45 Panel discussion

12:30 pm Break

1:00 pm Shared lunch. Drinks will be provided

1.45 pm Start of afternoon session, sharing and working on our Quaker response to the issues raised in the morning.

4:00 pm Final Minute

4:30 pm Close meeting, tea, cakes and farewells

Children: Please let us know as soon as possible if it would help you to bring children:
further information on a childrens' parallel session to be confirmed.

Parking is extremely limited at the Meeting House and is reserved for mobility-restricted visitors. Please see Joining Instructions for alternatives or use greener transport.

Arrangements Group:

Vernon White (Convenor) 01326 341474/ 079829751 vernonwhi@gmail.com

Raymond Thompson (Exeter Arrangements) 01392 438148 daymer@freeuk.com

Gill Westcott (Speaker arrangements) 01647 24789 gillwestcott@gmail.com

Quaker Gatherings in 2013:

23 February: at St Austell "Understanding Friends Worldwide"

3 to 5 May: Residential Gathering at Sheldon, near Exeter

A Saturday in October: Topic and Venue to be discerned.